PARANORMAL ROUND TABLE

Coming to Alburts PA on April 18, 2015
More information to come!

THE PARANORMAL OF PA

North Central and Western Pennsylvania have has a number of Dogman sightings in the last three or four years. The creature is described as having short dark hair, very muscular, with a dog type snout, approximately 8 foot tall. Sometime walking or running on two legs and other times on all fours. There has been more than one report of hunters, hikers and researchers being ignored by the creature as it passes them, like it doesn't even see them or ignores them. Then there are reports of people being scared out of the woods never to return after having some type of unknown fear of what they saw or didn't see. A recent Clearfield County case has a man walking his dogs and the creature walks out onto the trail ahead of them. The dogs go wild trying to break free of their leashes to get to the creature but the creature does not pay them or the man any notice and continues on like they were never there. So what are we dealing with? A Skinwalker? Something Inter-Dimensional? Or something we have yet to encounter!

PENNSYLVANIA LEGENDS

Coulters PA

There is a road believed to bend 13 times in one direction, but only twelve times in the other. There are a number of different tragedies that allegedly took place along the road. One variation says an orphanage on the road burned down in either the 1800's or 1900's. If you drive down the road at night and put baby powder on your car, you will see the handprints from the children killed in the blaze. People have claimed to see a burning building as well as hearing the screams and commotion of the children trying to escape their death. Another version is that an all girl Christian school was burned down, killing 13 girls. The legend says the girls were buried at each bend in the road. Some people have claimed to see the spirits of the girls and their teachers wandering in the woods.

One story says one night a group of teenagers drove out to check out the spiritual activity and got into a car accident, killing all of them. Their bodies remain in a mineshaft back off the road where three miners also are believed to have died. The forest beyond the road is also the alleged final resting place of three hunters. Some variations of the legend require following a series of steps in order to summon the ghostly spirits of those killed in the area.
